What Scouting Means to Me

World Organization of the Scout Movement

Scouting has been in operation for over 100 years and is the largest youth organization in the world. In many countries there is one organization for both boys and girls and in others the girls have a separate organization called the Girl Guides or the Girl Scouts. During the centennial year of 2007, the motto of "One World, One Promise" has been experienced in almost every country in the world. This exhibit uses selected stamps, covers and other material to illustrate the many aspects of Scouting. Join the adventure!
